ANNOUNCEMENTS

Special meeting Norwich Lodge, N. E. O. P., tonight, Buckingham Memorial.

turned and will be in her office as usual Nov. 1st.

Chrysanthemum show, benefit of Halle club, at Mrs. William Camp Lanman's, Nov. 7th and 8th. See adv.

Thos. A. Wise in "A Gentleman from Mississippi."

William A. Brady announces the eminent comedian Thomas A. Wise in "A Gentleman from Mississippi" at the Lycum theater, New London, Ct., Wednesday evening, Nov. 2. Customers of the comedy, which is now in its third year of success, and bids fair to go on until the copyright expires. A long stage career is the more assured for it because it is so absolutely true to the life it represents. Throughout the story runs the comic threads of pathos and the white threads of good deeds, and from those variegated strands Authors Davidson, Rhodes and Mr.
Wise, who is also co-author of the play, have woven a tapestry of humor, love and kindness that touches afflic-tion and the heart and the eye, and the authors stand out with startling fidelity to life.

Caught Cold!

How often it happens that serious illness and sometimes death is directly traceable to neglect of a "common" cold.
After it is too late, what wouldn't we give to have checked the cold at the start, then it would quickly yield to simple house treatment.

A most effective remedy, that will usually break up a cold overnight and quickly relieve the most irritating cough, is made by mixing 2 ounces of glycerine, a half-ounce of virgin oil of pine and 8 ounces of pure whiskey.
Shake well and take reasonable full four times a day. The ingredients for this mixture can be bought in any drug store, and easily mixed together in a large bottle. This formula was used and recommended for many years by the late Dr. W. A.
Leach, who founded the Leach Chemical Co., of Cincinnati, O., in whose laboratories the virgin oil of pine is compounded.

the home atmosphere.

POETRY

WHY NOT?
I know therefore, that first of all poetry is made for all men.—Timothy, 2:1.
O'er land and sea, love follows with fond prayers
Its dear ones in their sorrows, griefs and cares
On which it does not drop this tender dew.
Except the grave, and there it bids adieu.
And prayeth not.

Why should that be the only place un-cheered?
By prayer, which to our hearts is most endeared,
And sacred ground?
Living, we should see our blessings on their head.
Why should our lips be sealed when they are dead?
And we alone?

Come of my prayer;
And O, the heart, o'burdened with its grief,
This comfort needs, and finds therein relief.
From its despair.
Shall God be wroth because we love human kind?
And call upon his love to shield from ill?
Our dearest best,
And bring them home, and recompense their pain,
And cleanse their sin, if any sin remain.
And give them rest?

Nay, I will not believe it. I will As for the living, for the dead, each day.
They will not grow Less meek for heaven when followed by prayer.
To speed them home, like summer-scented air.
From long ago,
Who shall forbid the heart's desire to flow Beyond the limit of the things we know?
In heaven above
The increase that the golden censers Is the sweet perfume from the saintly prayer.
Of trust and love.
—Buffalo Courier.

WHEN you want to put your business before the public, there is no more effective medium than the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

Great Britain imports much less than stock than formerly. In 1898 the results of five years were $4,000 less from the United States and $3,000 less from Canada than in the previous years. At the same time it imported a greatly increased quantity of chilled beef.
